

Inter School Drawing Competition 'Paint-A-Tale'

Painting is literature in colours, and with an innate desire to provide a platform for the budding artists, Kulachi Hansraj Model School, Ashok Vihar, New Delhi hosted a fun-filled event of Tux Paint Drawing Competition ('Paint a Tale') on 3 May 2018.

Transformation of aesthetic potential of the young connoisseurs into visual expression was the main crux of this endeavour. The participants gave vent to their imagination and aesthetic exploration by creating magical expressions on the computer screen. Pranshi Sharma and Devarsh Mehta, the young maestros of grade IV, DAV Public School, Sector 10A, Gurugram clinched the 'Second Position' and brought laurels to the school. The winners were felicitated with certificates and prizes to acknowledge their efforts for 'Standing Out'.

